QUARREL OVER WEDDING.
Seventeen-year-old Antoinette Aline is dying in a Brooklyn, N. Y., hospital and the police are searching for Pasquale Agnie, a young man of 20 years, to whom she was to have been married within a few weeks. The girl has a bullet wound in her abdomen, which, the physicians at the hospital say, cannot but prove fatal. They believe that the wound was self-inflicted, but the police are anxious to have Agnie tell what she knows of the circumstances leading up to the tragedy.
From information obtained at the girl's home after the shooting, it appears that there has been a serious misunderstanding between the young couple growing out of plans for their approaching wedding. Agnie, however, told them he had no use for church weddings, that he would have none of it, and that he and Antoinette would be married quietly by a justice of the peace or not at all.

Antoinette grieved deeply over the denial of her wish to have a "great wedding," and it is believed that, in a fit of despondency, resulting from brooding over it, she fired the shot which probably will end her life.

WANTS THE STORK TO CALL
The following letter was received at Central Park, N. Y., yesterday, addressed to "Mr. Stork":

"My name is Anna Trainer, and I would like you very much to send me a nice little baby, for I like them very much. My friend, whose name is Hazel Corney, told me that she wrote a letter to you and a few days after she received a letter from you telling her that you would send the baby Christmas, or before Christmas. Well, Mr.
Stork, my letter must come to a close, but don't forget to send each of us a baby no other time but this Christmas, December 25. Hazel said she did not get her baby yet, so don't forget to send them Christmas.

"P. S.—Write soon."

The letter was shown to Bill the Central Park stork. Bill put his head on one side and—three keepers will vouch for this—deliberately winked.

A Traveling Man's Experience.
"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a destine-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car."

JUMP OVER PRECIPICE.
A flock of 152 sheep was destroyed under extraordinary circumstances on the Les Ecouges Mountain, near Grenoble, France, on Friday.

While the sheep were peacefully grazing a hare, pursued by two dogs, dashed in among them. The sheep were instantly seized with panic and rushed headlong towards the precipice called the Pas de la Cle, where they fell into a ravine 500 feet deep.

Some were caught on the branches of the fir trees; others were dashed against the rocks, and few escaped.

The shepherd gave chase to the dogs, and found that they belonged to the mayor of Montaud. They are now claiming an indemnity of $1,000 from the mayor.

Kodol will, without doubt, make your stomach strong and will almost instantly relieve you of all the symptoms of indigestion, flatulence, etc. It is sold here by W. F. Creighton & Co.

BURIED TOGETHER.
Acting upon the dying request of his wife, Albert Delick, 58 years old, a carpenter, committed suicide in New York Saturday.

His wife had died on Thursday night after a long illness, and when, in the morning, occupants of a neighboring flat smelled gas and broke down the door they found Delick sitting on a chair in the kitchen with the end of a gas tube in his mouth. On the bed in the front room, covered by a sheet, lay the body of his wife. Both were dead.

A letter, addressed to the financial secretary of the lodge of the Knights of Honor, read:
"Adolph, and all of my friends: My poor wife died, with all her senses and without pain, in my arms at 11 o'clock.
I obey what she asked. Please see that we are buried together."

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. It always cures. For sale by
